

December 1-2, 2018
denver, co

&

January 12-13, 2019
nashville, tn

Lead Volunteer Shift Commitment and Descriptions

BARISTA COMPETITION

Judges Calibration Barista - Friday

We are looking for former and future competitors to help our Judges learn, focus, and calibrate the Friday before the Qualifying Competition. You will need to have a Barista Competition routine prepared in advance, the modified Qualifying Competition version of 4 espressos and 4 Signature Beverages and be ready to perform this routine several times throughout the day. You may also be asked to make espressos outside of these routines for judges to taste and evaluate. The espresso machine, grinder, and some supplies will be provided; you may need to bring some supplies of your own for your routine. More details to follow. Judges Calibration Baristas may not be competitors in the Barista Competition in the 2019 season.

Stage Manager - Friday - Sunday

The Stage Manager is the Drum Major or Conductor of the Barista Competition. The Stage Manager has the unique task of orchestrating all competitors, volunteers, and judges on the Barista stage and communicating any issues or happenings to the SCA Event Staff. You will need to be very familiar with the Rules & Regulations and volunteer positions of the Barista Competition, comfortable making decisions, answering logistical questions, delegating tasks, and directing volunteers. The Stage Manager will also set up their stage area on the Friday before the competition. Must be able to lift 50lbs and remain on feet for 8+ hours.

Assistant Stage Manager - Friday - Sunday

One of the most important roles of the Barista Competition is helping the competitors get on and off the stage on time. The Assistant Stage Manager needs to be helpful, friendly, organized, and kind. You'll get to build relationships with competitors and coaches while helping competitors move to the stage area. You will need to be very familiar with the Rules & Regulations of the Barista Competition and remain in constant communication with the Stage Manager about timing and any potential issues or delays. The

December 1-2, 2018
denver, co

&

January 12-13, 2019
nashville, tn

Assistant Stage Manager will also help The Stage Manager in the setup of their stage area on the Friday before the competition. Must be able to lift 50lbs and remain on feet for 8+ hours.

Emcee - Saturday/Sunday

Do you love the Barista Competition? Do you thrive when talking to a crowd? Can you tell cheesy coffee jokes? We need you! You will need to be very familiar with the Barista Competition and its format - past competitors are especially encouraged to apply! You'll need to focus on the competitor's routine and then engage the competitor for 60-90 seconds with dynamic and exciting questions.

We will have Emcees on the stage as well as near the The Café engaging consumers as Barista competitors serve their espresso to the audience. You can indicate if you have a preference in the application.

BREWERS CUP COMPETITION

Judges Calibration Brewer - Friday

We are looking for former and future competitors to help our Judges learn, focus, and calibrate the Friday before the Qualifying Competition. You will need to have a Brewers Cup Open Service Competition routine prepared in advance and be ready to perform this routine several times throughout the day. You may also be asked to make additional coffee outside of these routines for judges to taste and evaluate. The hot water, grinder, and some supplies will be provided; you may need to bring some supplies of your own for your routine. More details to follow. Judges Calibration Brewers may not be competitors in Brewers Cup in the 2019 season.

Stage Manager - Friday - Sunday

The Stage Manager is the Drum Major or Conductor of Brewers Cup. The Stage Manager has the unique task of orchestrating all competitors, volunteers, and judges on the Brewers Cup stage and communicating any issues or happenings to the SCA Event Staff. You will need to be very familiar with the Rules & Regulations and volunteer positions of Brewers Cup, comfortable making decisions, answering logistical questions, delegating tasks, and directing volunteers. The Stage Manager will also

December 1-2, 2018
denver, co

&

January 12-13, 2019
nashville, tn

set up their stage area on the Friday before the competition. Must be able to lift 50lbs and remain on feet for 8+ hours.

Assistant Stage Manager – Friday - Sunday

One of the most important roles of the Brewer's Cup Competition is helping the competitors get on and off the stage on time. The Assistant Stage Manager needs to be helpful, friendly, organized, and kind. You'll get to build relationships with competitors and coaches while helping competitors move to the stage area. You will need to be very familiar with the Rules & Regulations of the Brewer's Cup Competition and remain in constant communication with the Stage Manager about timing and any potential issues or delays. The Assistant Stage Manager will also help The Stage Manager in the setup of their stage area on the Friday before the competition. Must be able to lift 50lbs and remain on feet for 8+ hours.

Emcee - Saturday/Sunday

Do you love Brewers Cup? Do you thrive when talking to a crowd? Can you tell cheesy coffee jokes? We need you! You will need to be very familiar with Brewers Cup and its format - past competitors are especially encouraged to apply! You'll need to focus on the competitor's routine and then engage the competitor for 60-90 seconds with dynamic and exciting questions.

We will have Emcees on the stage as well as near the The Café engaging consumers as Brewers Cup competitors serve their open service coffee to the audience. You can indicate if you have a preference in the application.

COFFEE IN GOOD SPIRITS COMPETITION (CIGS)

Judges Calibration Bar Back - Friday

We are looking for former and future competitors to help our Judges learn, focus, and calibrate the Friday before the Qualifying Competition. You will need to have a CIGS Competition routine prepared in

December 1-2, 2018
denver, co

&

January 12-13, 2019
nashville, tn

advance and be ready to perform this routine several times throughout the day. You may also be asked to make additional drinks outside of these routines for judges to taste and evaluate. The hot water, grinder, and some supplies will be provided; you may need to bring some supplies of your own for your routine. More details to follow. Judges Calibration Bar Backs may not be competitors in CIGS in the 2019 season.

Stage Manager - Friday - Sunday

The Stage Manager is the Drum Major or Conductor of CIGS. The Stage Manager has the unique task of orchestrating all competitors, volunteers, and judges on the CIGS stage and communicating any issues or happenings to the SCA Event Staff. You will need to be very familiar with the Rules & Regulations and volunteer positions of CIGS, comfortable making decisions, answering logistical questions, delegating tasks, and directing volunteers. The Stage Manager will also set up their stage area on the Friday before the competition. Must be able to lift 50lbs and remain on feet for 8+ hours.

Assistant Stage Manager – Friday - Sunday

One of the most important roles of the CIGS Competition is helping the competitors get on and off the stage on time. The Assistant Stage Manager needs to be helpful, friendly, organized, and kind. You'll get to build relationships with competitors and coaches while helping competitors move to the stage area. You will need to be very familiar with the Rules & Regulations of the CIGS Competition and remain in constant communication with the Stage Manager about timing and any potential issues or delays. The Assistant Stage Manager will also help The Stage Manager in the setup of their stage area on the Friday before the competition. Must be able to lift 50lbs and remain on feet for 8+ hours.

Emcee - Saturday/Sunday

Do you love CIGS? Do you thrive when talking to a crowd? Can you tell cheesy coffee jokes? We need you! You will need to be very familiar with CIGS and its format - past competitors are especially encouraged to apply! You'll need to focus on the competitor's routine and then engage the competitor for 60-90 seconds with dynamic and exciting questions.

CUP TASTERS COMPETITION

Stage Manager - Friday-Sunday

December 1-2, 2018
denver, co

&

January 12-13, 2019
nashville, tn

The Stage Manager is the Drum Major or Conductor of Cup Tasters. The Stage Manager has the unique task of orchestrating all competitors and volunteers on the Cup Tasters stage and communicating any issues or happenings to the SCA Event Staff. You will need to be very familiar with the Rules & Regulations and volunteer positions of Cup Tasters, comfortable making decisions, answering logistical questions, delegating tasks, and directing volunteers. The Stage Manager will also set up their stage area on the Friday before the competition. Must be able to lift 50lbs and remain on feet for 8+ hours.

Assistant Stage Manager – Friday - Sunday

One of the most important roles of the Cup Tasters Competition is helping the competitors get on and off the stage on time. The Assistant Stage Manager needs to be helpful, friendly, organized, and kind. You'll get to build relationships with competitors and coaches while helping competitors move to the stage area. You will need to be very familiar with the Rules & Regulations of the Cup Tasters Competition and remain in constant communication with the Stage Manager about timing and any potential issues or delays. The Assistant Stage Manager will also help The Stage Manager in the setup of their stage area on the Friday before the competition. Must be able to lift 50lbs and remain on feet for 8+ hours.

Emcee - Saturday/Sunday

Do you love the fast pace of Cup Tasters? Do you thrive when talking to a crowd? Can you tell cheesy coffee jokes? We need you! You will need to be very familiar with Cup Tasters and its format - past competitors are especially encouraged to apply!

ROASTER COMPETITION

Stage Manager - Friday - Sunday

The Stage Manager is the Drum Major or Conductor of the Roaster Competition. The Stage Manager has the unique task of orchestrating all competitors, volunteers, and judges on the Roaster stage and communicating any issues or happenings to the SCA Event Staff. You will need to be very familiar with the Rules & Regulations and volunteer positions of the Roaster Competition, comfortable making

December 1-2, 2018
denver, co

&

January 12-13, 2019
nashville, tn

decisions, answering logistical questions, delegating tasks, and directing volunteers. The Stage Manager will also set up their stage area on the Friday before the competition. Must be able to lift 50lbs and remain on feet for 8+ hours.

Assistant Stage Manager – Friday-Sunday

One of the most important roles of the Roaster Competition is helping the competitors get on and off the stage on time. The Assistant Stage Manager needs to be helpful, friendly, organized, and kind. You'll get to build relationships with competitors and coaches while helping competitors move to the stage area. You will need to be very familiar with the Rules & Regulations of the Roaster Competition and remain in constant communication with the Stage Manager about timing and any potential issues or delays. The Assistant Stage Manager will also help The Stage Manager in the setup of their stage area on the Friday before the competition. Must be able to lift 50lbs and remain on feet for 8+ hours.

Emcee - Saturday/Sunday

Do you love the Roaster Competition? Do you thrive when talking to a crowd? Can you tell cheesy coffee jokes? We need you! You will need to be very familiar with Roaster competition and its format - past competitors are especially encouraged to apply! You'll need to focus on the competitor's routine and then engage the competitor for 60-90 seconds with dynamic and exciting questions.

We will have Emcees on the stage as well as near the The Café engaging consumers as Roaster competitors serve their open service coffee to the audience. You can indicate if you have a preference in the application.

THE CAFE

The Café Manager - Friday - Sunday

Consumer engagement is a huge part of CoffeeChamps! The Café will feature Barista Competitors and guest baristas from roasters across the USA as well as past Barista Champions; Brewers Cup Competitors and Roaster Competitors. Your job as the The Café Manager will be to keep the cafe operating as smoothly as possible, including ensuring Barista, Brewers Cup, and Roaster competitors arrive and depart on time, directing porters to assist with dishes, and overseeing the equipment's operation on the bar. Must be able to lift 50lbs and remain on feet for 8+ hours. Must be a BGA member and Barista Level 1 or Barista Foundation Certified.

December 1-2, 2018
denver, co

&

January 12-13, 2019
nashville, tn

BACK OF HOUSE

Scorekeeper - Saturday - Sunday

Love spreadsheets? Want to be an integral part of the competitions, but prefer to be behind the scenes? Then Score keeping is for you! You'll enter scores from Barista, Brewers Cup, Coffee In Good Spirits, Cup Tasters, and Roaster competitions into excel spreadsheets, scan them into the computer, keep a running ranking sheet, and keep the score sheets organized. Score keeping requires focus and attention to detail as well as complete non-disclosure about the scores you see throughout the day.